Rewitalizacja i rozbudowa zabytkowego obiektu biurowego w Birmingham. Projekt zakładał przekształcenie Baskerville House na biura klasy A, o powierzchni 19000m<sup>2</sup>

W 2007r. Baskerville House zdobył: Midlands Property Award w kategorii Commercial Development oraz British Council for Offices Award w kategorii Refurbished/ Recycled Workplace.

Rolfe Judd's refurbishment of Baskerville House transformed the listed former offices of Birmingham City Council into just over 19000m<sup>2</sup> of Grade A office accommodation, winning critical acclaim from several awarding bodies, including those listed below.

The judges of the BCO Awards praised the sympathetic restoration of the building and noted that the project was "a very fine achievement and an excellent example of how refurbishment can add enormous value to both building and its setting".

- Regional Winner, Refurbished/Recycled Workplace - The Midlands and East Anglia
2007 British Council for Offices [BCO] Awards
